The School of Management Studies, REVA University organized an alumni mentoring session on Major Project Report Writing for final-year students. The objective of the session was to guide students on effectively structuring, formatting, and presenting their major project reports to meet academic and professional standards.

Objective

- To familiarize students with the structure and components of a major project report.
- To provide practical tips on technical writing, citation, and plagiarism avoidance.
- To bridge the gap between academic expectations and industry practices through alumni insights.

Session Highlights

- Overview of project report structure (Title Page, Abstract, Table of Contents, Introduction, Literature Review, Methodology, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, References, Appendices).
- Tips on writing an effective abstract and conclusion.
- Guidance on formatting and adhering to the institutional template.
- Common mistakes to avoid in project documentation.
- Discussion on plagiarism and the use of plagiarism detection tools.
- Importance of proper citation styles (IEEE/APA/MLA formats).
- Real-life examples of well-prepared project reports and how they contributed to placements or further studies.
- Q&A session with students for personalized guidance.
