Report

Welcome Address:

A brief welcome address and Profile reading was done by Dr. Malashree S at 1.30 pm.

Mentoring Session commenced from 2.05 pm:

The alumni interaction session with Mr. Mourya G R proved to be a highly insightful and engaging experience, aimed at preparing students for critical career decisions and professional development. He underscored the importance of timely decision-making, especially when choosing a specialization - as this lays the foundation for a successful transition into the corporate world.

While elaborating on the hiring process, Mr. Mourya emphasized the need to present one's core competencies confidently during interviews, suggesting that self-awareness and clear articulation of one's value can significantly boost employability.

A noteworthy part of the session addressed prevalent myths around sales roles. He highlighted insider sales as a viable and rewarding option for those seeking strategic client engagement without extensive travel.

In addition to career advice, Mr. Mourya offered valuable tips for budding entrepreneurs. He emphasized the importance of understanding market needs, building a strong personal and professional network, and focusing on execution over mere ideation. Entrepreneurs were encouraged to stay adaptable, validate their business models early, and embrace feedback as a tool for growth.

Overall, the session was deeply enriching, equipping students and aspiring entrepreneurs alike with practical guidance and clarity to shape their future paths with confidence and purpose.

Q&A session:

- ✓ What were the challenges faced by an entrepreneur in initial stages?
- ✓ Skills required irrespective of domain?

Vote of Thanks:

A vote of thanks was extended, marking the conclusion of the session at 2.20 pm.

Attendance

Collected as Hardcopy. 22 students and 1 faculty member had attended the program.

Feedback

Comments

- Good
- It was very informative
- It was very informative and useful
- It would be better if it's little specific towards finance and business analytics freshers, required skills and certifications
- Give more advice for career development
- I suggest offline mentoring would be more engaging

Actions Taken Report

Since overall feedback was good, and students wanted it to be offline, further will try to organize offline sessions.
