

“SELECTION OF DEPARTMENT HEADS”-2025

EVENT REPORT

The selection of department heads in the ‘NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME’(NSS)is a process aimed at choosing capable leaders who can manage and oversee various NSS activities. Candidates are typically chosen based on their experience, leadership skills and commitment to the mission of NSS. The selection involves nominations, interviews and sometimes voting by peers or faculty, followed by an appointment and training to ensure effective leadership. This process helps ensure that department heads can lead their teams effectively and contribute to the success of NSS initiatives.
